

Mark Geppert is the President and founder of the South East Asia Prayer Center, which is committed to creating new and networking existing prayer cells in South East Asia, channeling resources into humanitarian projects, and raising prayer teams which will penetrate unreached people groups in the nations.

Mark has taught leaders in Latin America, Asia, Australia, Africa, Europe, and throughout the United States of America. His radio and television experience has made him noted as a “master communicator.” Mark has 30 years of international experience in over thirty countries and has authored three books. The first, Every Place Your Foot Shall Tread, has over fifty thousand copies in print and is in translation for ten languages. Mark is ordained through Elim Fellowship of Rochester, New York. Mark has served on the staff of several Churches in the United States, most recently established and pastored the English speaking congregation of the Church of Singapore (Bukit Timah).
